

Lindemans

Bin 95 Sauvignon Blanc 2005

Lindemans wines promise more than the partnering of quality grapes and craftsmanship. Every wine also contains the spirit and passion of our founder - Henry J Lindeman.

The Lindemans Bin Range is internationally recognised as one of the best value-for-money wines ranges available throughout the world. Renowned for consistency and quality, this is achieved by Lindemans firm adherence to the style formula and sourcing of the best parcels of fruit each vintage from a wide array of premium growing areas throughout the southern states of Australia.

Lindemans Bin 95 Sauvignon Blanc is a reliable, all-purpose wine made in an unoaked style, which highlights the variety's distinctive, fresh herbaceous and tropical fruit aromas and flavours.

These wines can be enjoyed at any occasion.

Regional Source

Sourced from some of the best grape growing districts in the south eastern Australia.

Vintage Conditions

The 2005 vintage was of consistent good quality across all regions. Favourable seasonal conditions - particularly mild temperatures, with few sustained hot periods, and moderate and generally well timed rainfall - resulted in good quality and steady ripening of fruit, with full varietal characters being developed.

Grape Variety

Sauvignon Blanc

Maturation

This wine was matured in stainless steel to maintain the clean, fresh flavours.

Winemaker Comments: Marie Clay

Colour

Pale green with golden hints.

Nose

Citrus blossom aromas combine with gooseberry, kiwi fruit and freshly cut grass notes.

Palate

Elegant and refreshing, this medium bodied wine is packed with layers of fruit flavour, reflecting the varied regional base. Gooseberry and kiwi fruit flavours are at the fore, leading to a grassy, smooth finish. Mouthwatering natural acidity adds great complexity.
