

FIFTH GENERATION CLASSIC DRY WHITE

Still family owned since 1858, Tyrrell's are a wine company rich in history and pioneering achievements. Bruce's children, Jane, John and Christopher are all involved in the company in both sales and winemaking which ensures a continuing family ownership for the company well into the future with the fifth generation.

TASTING NOTES

Colour is medium straw yellow with green hints. Herbaceous, grassy and lifted citrus aromas are evident on the nose. Fresh, rich, tropical flavours are echoed on the palate which has good length and a crisp balanced acid on the finish.

WINEMAKER'S NOTES

The blend consists of Semillon and Chardonnay.
Alc 12.5%

SERVING SUGGESTIONS

Designed for immediate drinking and versatility, the Fifth Generation Classic Dry White combines especially well with most white meat dishes, fish, and seafood.

OTHER WINES IN THE RANGE

- Fifth Generation Cabernet Shiraz
- Fifth Generation Premium Brut

Australian Family Owned for 150 Years

Visit us at: www.tyrrells.com.au